

MEDIA ADVISORY
FEBRUARY 18, 2015

SCIENCE FESTIVAL COMING TO SAULT STE. MARIE THIS SPRING

(SAULT STE. MARIE, ON) – A new community event, aimed at sparking an interest in science, is coming to Sault Ste. Marie this spring! The Sault Ste. Marie Science Festival – the only festival of its kind in the area – kicks off its inaugural year this April 28 through to May 2, 2015.

Local media are invited to join special guests, The Honourable David Oraziotti, Member of Provincial Parliament for Sault Ste. Marie, and Mayor Christian Provenzano, along with the partner organizations who are collaborating to organize the event, and be among the first to learn more about the upcoming festival.

DATE: Friday, February 20, 2015

TIME: 2 p.m.

LOCATION: Canadian Bushplane Heritage Centre

-30-

Media Contacts:

Tessa Vecchio
Communications Officer
External Relations
Sault College
(705) 759-2554 x 2830
Tessa.Vecchio@saultcollege.ca

Christine Catt
Marketing Specialist
Science North & Dynamic Earth
(705) 522-3701 ext. 227
catt@sciencenorth.ca

EVENTS

- ARTIE
- Science Café
- Adult Night
- Science Professionals Networking
- Science for Seniors
- Science Carnival

